

I am strongly against weakening Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. For the first time in years, my family can enjoy a quiet evening at home. I give people I want to call me a number they can contact me at during business hours. Life is very stressful these days. My family and I need our quiet time in the evenings.